Do you ever find objects while you’re digging your allotment?

Bits of pottery, clay pipe, metal objects, worked flint, or bone?

Collect these finds and help archaeologists identify areas of past activity. Join in the Whitehawk Camp Community Archaeology Project by speaking to your site representative.

A reconstruction by Ian Dennis of the Whitehawk causewayed enclosure c. 3,600 cal BC